- You want to make a difference.
- You want to have fun and experience art at its best!

We have an exciting line-up of events coming this fall, starting on September 24th, 2010! Abilities Arts Festival is looking for committed, enthusiastic, and friendly volunteers to help out at this year's events. We are looking for people who have a considerable time to give, as well as those who can give only a few hours during the actual festival.

The following are just some of the many volunteer opportunities:

- Box Office / Ticket Sales / Registration
- Front of House / On Site Communications / Refreshments
You will be the "face" of the festival. Members of this team are responsible for helping our patrons figure out what's going on, where they're going and how to get there.
- Performer / Crew Assistance
Work with our Technical Coordinator and the talented performers participating at the festival during the events.
- Transportation

Abilities Arts Festival provides a unique opportunity through the NBC Universal Volunteer Program for you to contribute your enthusiasm and skills while also providing you with chance to make a difference.
